P3M5: The Plurality of Privacy Project will ask what privacy means in the digital age.

P3M5, the first of two pairings with the Goethe-Institut, will explore this theme through staged readings of seven plays and screenings of two video plays this Saturday and Sunday afternoon.

Our second pairing, Pure Land, is coming up on February 3rd and 4th. It traces the story of Tara, a pregnant Middle Eastern woman seeking political asylum amidst crippling bureaucracy and crumbling relationships. Learn more >>

This weekend is your only chance to see the reading!

Our Co-Founder Jamil Khoury said, "we've exchanged privacy for elusive notions of community and friendship." He continued, "but Germany, for one, remembers a time when personal information was used as a weapon in the government's arsenal; as a result, Germans of today are extremely protective of personal data."
