Mosque Alert Launches College Theatre Season

Written by Jamil Khoury and directed by Chairperson of Art and Theatre Carin Silkaitis, Mosque Alert is the first production of North Central College's award-winning Theatre department this year. Watch this video from NCTV17 to learn more about why this project is important to Silkaitis and NCC's theatre department.

In addition to authoring the play, artistic director Jamil Khoury will visit North Central College in Naperville to work with faculty and students in preparation for the play's opening on October 27th.

Mosque Alert opens in the Theatre at Meiley-Swallow Hall on Thursday, October 27, runs Thursday, Friday, and Saturday at 7:30 p.m., and closes Sunday at 4:00 p.m. Learn More »

Rasaka Theatre: The World Premiere of Multitudes

"When hate trumps love...everybody loses."

In a possible future where Trump is the American president and Brexit reigns in England, the country is in turmoil as one of its most multicultural cities awaits a visit from the Prime Minister, and one family clashes over their own internal conflicts of faith, belonging, and who gets to call themselves British. Performances run October 20 - November 13 at Victory Gardens Richard Christensen Theater. Learn More »
