Goodman Theatre presents Yasmina's Necklace

Written by Rohina Malik

Directed by Ann Filmer

October 20 – November 19, 2017

Newly arrived in Chicago from her homeland, Iraqi artist Yasmina has hardened herself against the possibility of finding happiness. But when she meets Sam, a man with his own emotional setbacks, what had seemed unthinkable becomes improbably and tantalizingly real. Chicago-based artists playwright Rohina Malik and director Ann Filmer reunite for the downtown debut of Yasmina's Necklace, following its staged reading at Silk Road Rising and critically-acclaimed world premiere at 16th Street Theater last year.

$10 off main floor tickets to Yasmina's Necklace running now through November 19. Use promo code SILKROAD at GoodmanTheatre.org/Necklace to receive the discount*.

Writers Theatre presents

Quixote: On the Conquest of Self

Written by Mónica Hoth and Claudio Valdés Kuri

Directed by Claudio Valdés Kuri

September 27 - December 17

This engaging interpretation of the classic novel transports audiences between time periods: from the universes created by Cervantes to the parallels in today's world. Along the way, Quixote brings new meaning to our triumphs and defeats, reawakening forgotten desires and celebrating the joys of literature.

Created by internationally-recognized artist Claudio Valdés Kuri and featuring a virtuoso performance by Henry Godinez, Quixote: On the Conquest of Self will immerse audiences in the story of this eccentric idealist as they accompany him on an adventure filled with humor and poignancy.

Nothing Without a Company presents

Bobby Pin Girls

Written by Janey Bell

Directed by Ben Kaye

October 29 - December 3

Over the course of a wild night, Ana and Bree are forced to do some rapid bonding. Ana is an uptight actress struggling to convince herself to stick with a show she not-so-secretly despises while navigating mixed signals from her director. Visual artist Bree attempts to boost her new roomie's self-confidence while dealing with her impulsive and reckless ex reentering her life.

Will the toxic people in their lives bust up this burgeoning friendship or will the girls learn to embrace their evolving identities?

TimeLine Theatre presents In the Next Room (The Vibrator Play)

Written by Sarah Ruhl

Directed by Michelle Moe

Now - December 16

"Leave behind the stranglehold of convention and loosen your corset, you will breathe much better." This intimate and humorous story of awakening, equality, and the need for connection was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize for Drama and a Tony Award nominee for Best Play. Don't miss this entertaining night of self-discovery which shows that human connection is not simply a means to an end, but a vital part of life itself.

Silk Road Rising patrons receive $10 off with code TL10DOLLAROFF.

Victory Gardens & Teatro Vista present Fade

Written by Tanya Saracho

Directed by Sandra Marquez

November 4 - December 23

In this witty behind-the-scenes drama, Mexican-born Lucia is hired to write for a ruthless Hollywood TV series. She soon discovers that the Mexican American custodian, Abel, has a windfall of plot ideas. As their friendship grows, his stories start to blur with hers leading to unexpected consequences. Fade, directed by Sandra Marquez, is an acclaimed new play from Tanya Saracho (How to Get Away with Murder, Looking, Girls) whose writing “lands in that sweet spot between comedy and drama” (Chicago Tribune).
