Tis' the Season for Giving & Gratitude

In 2015, Silk Road Rising produced a workshop production of Yellow Dress, written and performed by Marissa Lichwick, and directed by Lavina Jadhvani.

Every story told and every voice amplified is the result of your generosity. And every time you've told us how much you miss our work, we've listened. More exciting announcements are coming in 2024, but we can't wait to share this news any longer...

We're returning to live theatre in April!

Like you, we're thrilled for our long-awaited return to the stage. We know that it is only made possible through the unwavering support and patience of donors like you.

Next year will once again be a time to connect and celebrate as a community. This Giving Tuesday, we hope you will join us in blazing a new path forward by making a gift today!
