Dear Friend,

Today we celebrate #GivingTuesday and the power of collective giving. This year's #GivingTuesday takes on even greater meaning because it exemplifies the kindness and generosity that were at times lost during this challenging and tumultuous year.

Our Impact on an Educator

"Not only did we get such a beautiful, full introduction into Silk Road's EPIC program, but we were gifted with a wonderful hour of authentic, important work. I loved every minute of it, and was honored to be in the Zoom Room with all of you!"

Your support today will fuel Silk Road Rising's mission of promoting pluralism and cultural interchange. Together, we can make this Silk Road Rising's most successful #GivingTuesday yet, as we recommit ourselves to amplifying the stories of our communities with complexity, courage, and flexibility in the coming year.

Our Impact on an Audience Member

"Each performance has both entertained me and, more importantly, educated me to ways of thinking I had not understood or considered."

To support artmaking that centers justice and action, join us in the following:

- Visit Silk Road Rising to make your donation today.
- Invite your friends and family to follow us on social media and tell them why you support Silk Road Rising's mission to build greater understanding within and between communities.

Our Impact on a Teaching Artist

"I have been with Silk Road Rising for just over 4 years now...It's important for me to work with a group that honors my time and skills and I have always been treated with deep respect for the work I bring and do."

Celebrate #GivingTuesday by supporting all that you cherish and love about Silk Road Rising.
