American Pathways: Stories of Refugees, Asylees, Dreamers, and Muslims

Thursday, December 16 at 5:00pm CST

For the past two years, StoryCorps has traveled virtually and in-person across our nation to listen to, highlight, and connect with untold stories of Muslims, refugees, asylees, and Dreamers. Through their American Pathways initiative, they have recorded more than 150 conversations in partnership with over 14 community organizations, including Silk Road Rising, in order to expand the American story. As this initiative comes to an end, StoryCorps invites you to listen to a curated collection of recorded

Moheb Soliman: HOMES poetry release, featuring Kemi Alabi

Tonight, Friday, December 10 at 6:30PM CST

Poet and performance artist Moheb Soliman's Great Lakes book tour comes to Chicago! His recent debut collection HOMES explores themes of nature, modernity, identity, belonging, and sublimity through the site of the Great Lakes bioreg/borderland. He will be joined by local poet Kemi Alabi with highlights from Alabi's award-winning collection Against Heaven. Together they will read and talk about the intersections of their work and practice and engage with the audience in discussion.
