PANIC INTERSECTING: Mosques, Zoning, and Islamophobia

A Panel Discussion
January 19, 2016 AT 7 PM

Moderated by Jamil Khoury

The panel discussion "Panic Intersecting: Mosques, Zoning, and Islamophobia" will feature zoning specialist and attorney Mark Daniel and DuPage County Board Member Tony Michellasi. Moderated by Artistic Director Jamil Khoury, the panelists will discuss their experiences with mosque zoning disputes in the Chicagoland area and the motivations behind them. This event will create a broader understanding of the difficulties facing the Muslim American community in their wish to exercise their religious freedom and provide more context for our upcoming world premiere of Jamil Khoury's Mosque Alert.

Oh My Sweet Land January 30-31, 2016

Written by Amir Nizar Zuabi

Performed by Amy J. Carle - Directed by Anna C. Bahow

*They call it a civil war
but there is nothing civil about it nothing civil at all.*

They came from Damascus, from Aleppo, from Baniyas where the bombs fall day and night and the wounded children look like sleeping angels. Now they live in camps and abandoned buildings in Lebanon and Jordan, as Syria's becomes a haunting memory.

A Syrian woman prepares kibbeh in her kitchen, while recounting tales of her vanished lover. Her stories bring to life an ancient land torn apart by a cruel war. Oh My Sweet Land is written by Amir Nizar Zuabi, rising star of the Palestinian theatre.
