Dear Friend,

As part of our Silk Road Rising family, we want to thank you for all of your support during this difficult year. Can't say we're going to miss 2020, but we've certainly built new muscles! But if there's one constant, it is our gratitude for being a part of such a generous community of storytellers, artmakers, and art lovers.

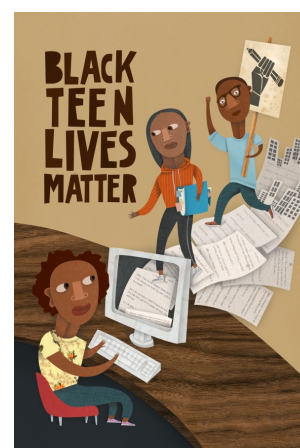

Since our inception, Silk Road Rising has been telling the unheard stories of New Americans and bringing them to life on stage and online. Moving forward, we need to continue creating opportunities for listening, connecting, and reimagining possibilities.

Your contribution will usher in a new year filled with exciting programs, performances, and initiatives. The COVID-19 pandemic has certainly inspired new thinking and innovation that will serve Silk Road Rising for years to come. That said, we continue to plan for a triumphant return to live theatre in the fall of 2021 (fingers crossed!).

Donate and Say Sayonara to 2020.

Here's wishing you a glorious new year full of health, hope, and new beginnings!
