

Only two weeks left to see Wild Boar! View Online Or Forward to a friend

"[Wild Boar carries] the audience into the world of the play and its exposure of a threat to democratic freedoms that should concern us all. [The play presents] a topic we rarely ponder in Chicago theater, and it is sincerely and competently acted by Christine Bunuan, Emily Marso, Scott Shimizu and others. [Follow] the thrill of the chase." – Chris Jones, Chicago Tribune

Only 8 Performances Left!

Wild Boar demonstrates the delicate balance between stability and liberty in civil society with its scenes, plot, and dialogue. In this new video, Translators Joanne C. Lee and Ken Smith draw parallels with the political changes between Hong Kong and in the U.S. in 2017. "I believe the more specific a work is, the more universal it becomes," said Adapter David Henry Hwang. See the play that TimeOut said "can't help but wake you up" before seats and time run out!

Wild Boar runs through: December 17th. Here are the remaining performances.
