What Critics Are Saying

"Bunuan has a lovely voice and a winning onstage rapport with her laconic accompanist, Ryan Brewster...it's her deceptively simple stories about life in theater or visiting her extended family in the Philippines that make this show a cut above your average holiday revue." Read More »

"Trust Silk Road Rising to make its very first holiday show – Christmas at Christine's – not only multi-cultural but free of schmaltz and glitter too. Directed by J.R. Sullivan, Christine Bunuan's 90-minute meander through her own Christmases Past nudges her audience towards a more meaningful Christmas Present. Bunuan, a Filipino American actress married to a Jewish American actor, offers up a cabaret-style pastiche of songs, snapshots, chit-chat and reflections about her favorite holiday." ### What Audiences Are Saying

"Christine's joy on stage is infectious! Just what I needed after a long year."

"The whole production moved me tremendously."

"At this time, I needed something that reminded me of the core human values. Christmas at Christine's gave me just that, and with plenty holiday cheer, too!"

"I can't wait to see this again!"
