Tennis in Nablus by Ismail Khalidi

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18 AT 8:00PM
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 19 AT 4:00PM

Set in Nablus in the spring of 1939, Tennis in Nablus brings to life the last days of the Arab Revolt as the people of Palestine attempt for one last time to drive out the British. With deep passion and bold humor, the play is a genre-bending look at Palestine's embattled status through the eyes of an unflinching rebel, a tireless polemicist, and an ambitious entrepreneur. With their entire world exploding around them, a divided family faces their own demons as they seek to achieve peace, freedom, and dignity.
