"The set feels so real that it's like watching the drama unfold from the characters' living room."

— Patch.com

Read this beautiful feature story about Through the Elevated Line on Patch.com! The article says that "the play reimagines A Streetcar Named Desire without readapting it," adding, "it uses familiarity to tell a new, updated story." Learn more >>

Noting the play is rife with tension and quoting director Carin Silkaitis, the play is "the mirror we hold up," Patch.com wrote, "that give us a good look of the reflection."
