Mosque Alert

March 24 – May 1, 2016

Written by Jamil Khoury - Directed by Edward Torres

Inspired by the "Ground Zero Mosque" controversy in New York City, Mosque Alert tells the story of three fictional families living in Naperville, Illinois, whose lives are interrupted by a proposed Islamic Center on the site of a beloved local landmark.

Mosque Alert explores the intersections of zoning and Islamophobia with humor, family drama, and refreshingly blunt honesty.

The Diversity of the Muslim American Community

Over the next month, we will share essays that provide insights into the themes explored in the World Premiere of Jamil Khoury's Mosque Alert.

We begin our series by sharing the essay, "We the People...In Order to Form a More Perfect Union," written by Mosque Alert dramaturg Annaliese McSweeney.

Stories of hate are all too familiar. In recent months the news has been filled with embarrassing and horrifying incidents that seem to be on repeat at the expense of our fellow Muslim citizens. The reality is that the estimated 1.5–2.75 million Muslims living in America are not a single race, but a diverse multitude, shaped by an assortment of religious, cultural, and ethnic heritages that contribute to American culture.
