Praise for Mosque Alert

Hailed as an "explosive world premiere" by Chicago Stage and Cinema, and characterized for its "Kushneresque knack for complicating already complicated realities" by the Chicago Reader, MOSQUE ALERT tells the story of three families whose lives are interrupted by a proposed Islamic Center on the site of a beloved local landmark. Highly recommended by the Huffington Post and Windy City Times, and praised by Chris Jones of the Chicago Tribune for articulating "issues with passion" and "eloquence," Jamil Khoury's ambitious new play is not to be missed.

What Patrons Are Saying

"Impeccable acting!"

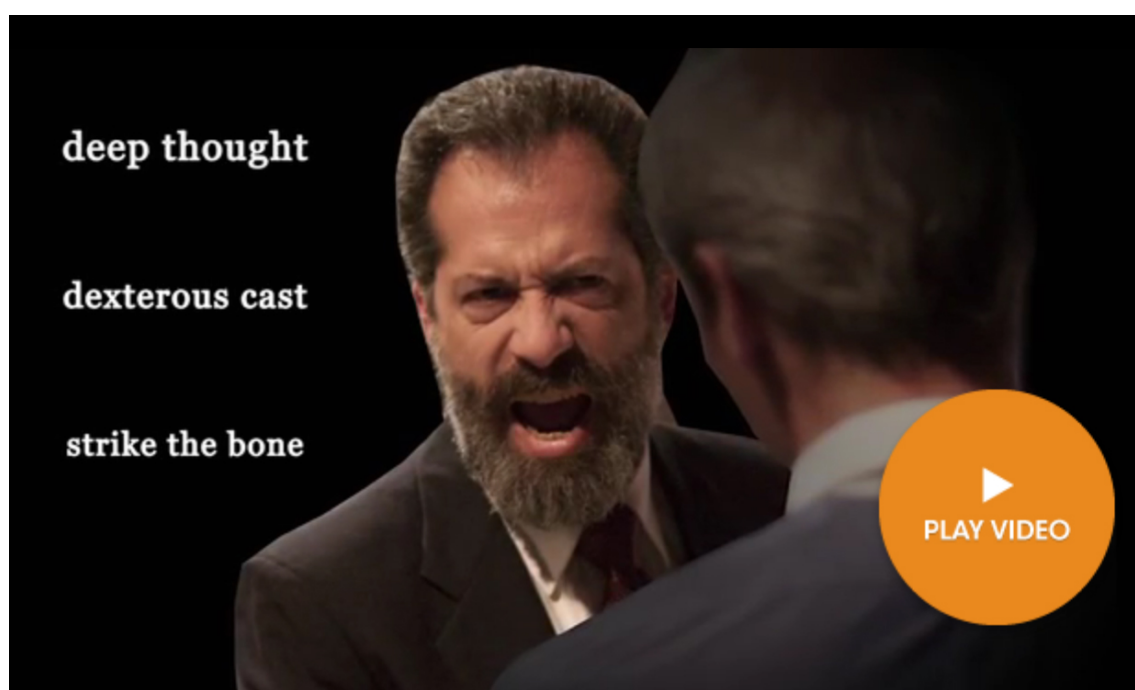

"Excellent and eye opening!"

"I felt validated and supported. I felt less alone."

"I have had the opportunity to follow the development of Jamil's play from the early days and it was great to see how it became a more sophisticated, complex work and more challenging for the audience. Really well written. And then to see it come to life with such a strong cast...fantastic production!"

"I was in NYC when the 9-11 terror attacks happened, and though I was very young, I can remember the fear, anger, and confusion following it. 'Mosque Alert' allowed me to correct, re-evaluate, and reconsider the challenging issues that are so real to many people, many years after that day, and for that I am very grateful."
