Inspired by the "Ground Zero Mosque" controversy in New York City, Mosque Alert opens a window into the world of three fictional families living in Naperville, Illinois, whose lives are interrupted by a proposed Islamic Center on the site of a beloved local landmark.

This extension adds eight new opportunities to see what Hedy Weiss of the Chicago Sun-Times calls "precisely the right recipe for a solid argument play."

Performances continue through May 15th: Thursdays at 7:30pm, Fridays at 8:00pm, Saturdays and Sundays at 4:00pm. Tickets are selling fast!

More Critical Acclaim

"[Mosque Alert] has one of the most powerful scenes I have heard in the theatre in a long, long, long time. This is a current play about important things happening here and happening now. Go and see it!"

Jonathan Abarbanel, Dueling Critics

In her recent review for Third Coast Review, Kim Campbell praises Mosque Alert, stating:

family...revealing the weaknesses in all of its characters and in doing so, pointing out the humanity in all of them as well."

Kerstin Broockmann of Chicago Stage Standard lauds Khoury's script and the production itself in her recent review:

"Clearly articulated...It is a very American story about politics, patriotism, money, and assimilation. Jamil Khoury and the cast and crew of Mosque Alert allow a range of perspectives to be heard and offer no easy answers."

Audiences Continue to Rave

Performances of Mosque Alert remain packed, with audiences praising the show for its artistry, relevance, and impact on their own lives:

"A very bold and thought-provoking piece!"

"I was on the edge of my seat."

"It was one of the best experiences I've had at a theatre performance."

"It was so topical. The discussions and dialogue between characters are something I would hear being talked about today over a dinner table or drinks. Very relevant to current culture/politics."

"I loved it."

"I saw my own prejudice against people...I am wanting to open up that perspective and give them a chance at redemption and myself the same chance! If I condemn others, it diminishes my ability to communicate, to cooperate and create something better with those very people."
