Detour Guide

A World Premiere

Co-Produced with Stage Left Theatre

Written and Performed by Karim Nagi

Directed by Anna C. Bahow

Friday, April 5 at 8pm

Saturday, April 6 at 4pm

Sunday, April 7 at 4pm

"Karim Nagi's spirited solo show ... provided opportunities for both cathartic joy and sobering reflection ... His musical passport bears stamps from an astounding array of influences, all of which come together near the end in a virtuoso display."
 - Kerry Reid, Chicago Tribune

"RECOMMENDED! A fantastic educational and cultural experience ... [Karim is] a performer of unbelievable talent, passion and amiability."
 - Colin Douglas, chicagotheatrereview.com

The gorgeous set design from Samia Malik plays a crucial role in giving the show a visual identity. Props and costume pieces (from designers Abigail Cain and Brenda Winstead respectively) are integrated into the set seamlessly, with Nagi removing and replacing certain things throughout the show. And the lights from designer Ellie Humphrys are inspired."
 - Aaron Lockman, Rescripted
