With the 2017-18 school year ending, it's time to celebrate our arts-education accomplishments!

CPS students are wrapping up their studies in the coming days, and we've just finished our final EPIC residency of the year. EPIC (Empathic Playwriting Intensive Course) is an arts-learning program provided to students to foster empathy, explore social issues, and harness the power of storytelling.

We're proud to report that the 2017-18 school year was our biggest yet -- to date, we have served over a thousand students across 27 different schools. Learn more about EPIC >>

EPIC By the Numbers:

- 587 students served this year.
- 23 participating classrooms.
- Partnerships with English, History, Music, Visual Art, and Social Emotional Learning classes.
