Black Teen Lives Matter: Act Four

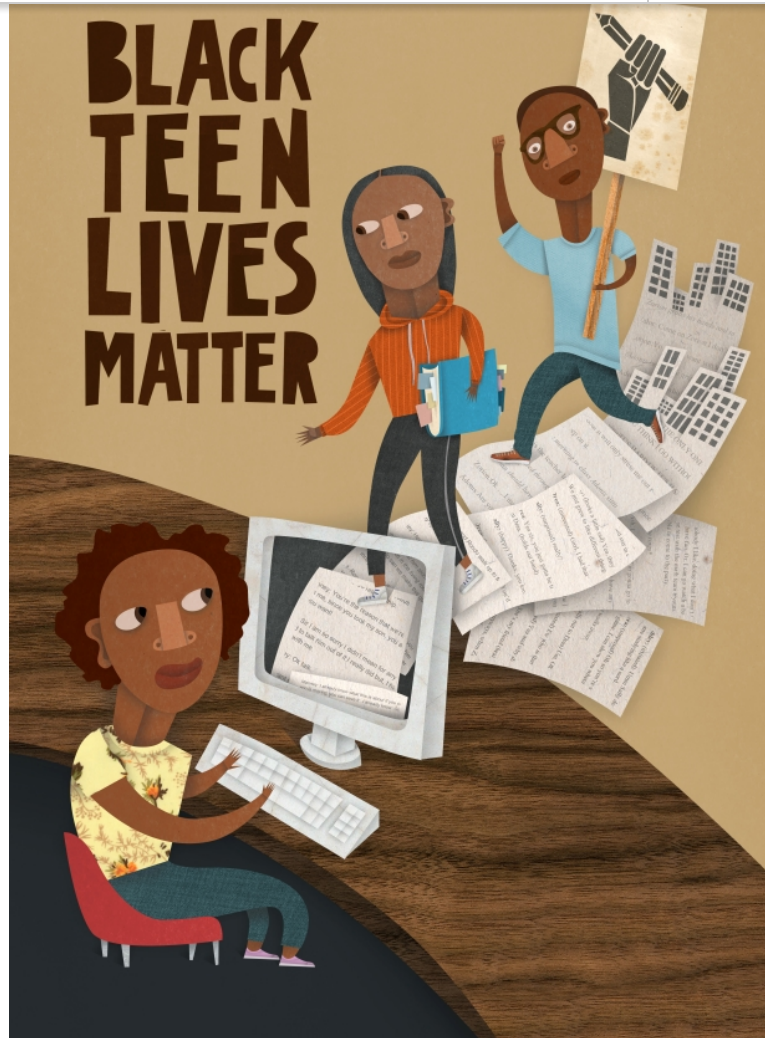

Directed by Jarrett King

July 28 & 31, 2021

Black Teens Lives Matter returns for its EPIC conclusion! This inspiring virtual project in four acts draws on monologues and short plays written by Black teens in our EPIC (Empathic Playwriting Intensive Course) program. The fourth and final act will feature stories written after Chicago's stay-at-home orders began on March 21, 2020. And many of written after the murder of George Floyd on May 25, 2020.

Directed by EPIC Teaching Artist Jarrett King, this collection of student-written plays will premiere on Wednesday, July 28. Join us at 7:00pm CDT to watch the video and then stay and discuss the plays with the creators. An encore presentation and talkback will occur on Saturday, July 31 at 2:00pm CDT.

Please join us for one or both Zoom screenings by clicking on the appropriate button(s) below. Only one reservation is needed per household per event.

FUTURE LABS VIRTUAL READING

SHAKUNTALA

By Lavina Jadhvani
Directed by Sophiyaa Nayar

GOODMAN

Join Goodman Theatre this Saturday, June 26, at 7:00PM CDT for a free virtual reading of Lavina Jadhvani's Shakuntala.

Shakuntala is celebrating her new marriage to the king when a sage places a spell on her beloved so that he forgets his wife's face. Inspired by Kalidasa's 4th-century drama, Lavina Jadhvani's Bollywood-infused Shakuntala is a playful, irreverent, totally contemporary take on losing and finding love and where we come from.
