Racially Profile This!

Jonas Hassen Khemiri's Invasion! is at once hilarious, disturbing and poignant. This mischievously subversive play deconstructs a "threatening" identity – the Arab male – and forces us to confront our own complicated identities.

This "meditation on the powers of language" (TimeOut Chicago) has caused a storm on social media. As Amy Munice of Splash Magazines writes, "For those of us who seek out small Chicago theater to spark thoughts in new directions, Silk Road Rising's Invasion! delivers this with perfect comic timing and a flawless performance."

Larry Bommer of Stage and Cinema concurs: "As malleable as the material, Anna Bahow's subversive staging keeps it surreal—and toxically familiar." As Tom Williams of Chicago Critic notes, "Invasion! delivers a theatrical treat. The piece proves to be provocative, daring and insightful. This show is worthy of an audience."

So what are you waiting for?
