We're kicking off 2024 with a bold rebrand and even bolder vision.

We're now Silk Road Cultural Center!

We'll continue bringing you the same thought-provoking, entertaining, and unique stories that you know and love and can now experience through theatre, film, music, dance, visual art, literature, and food.

Your continued generosity and support make this new chapter of the Silk Road journey imaginable and achievable.

From Our Founders,
Malik Gillani & Jamil Khoury

It's been an incredible journey of discovery, growth, and expansion. From Silk Road Theatre Project (2002) to Silk Road Rising (2012) to now Silk Road Cultural Center (2024), our commitment to providing a platform for Pan-Asian, North African, and Muslim artists to tell their stories remains unwavering. With each new iteration, we continue to honor the rich legacies of the historic Silk Road, becoming catalysts for artistic innovation and cultural interchange.

Guided by a vision of vibrant and interconnected communities, Chicagoland's rich cultural landscape is the canvas on which we will imagine new collaborations and chip away at the silos that separate artistic mediums.

Becoming Silk Road Cultural Center has long been a dream of ours. It is the natural next step on our Silk Road journey, a beautiful culmination of our collective efforts over the past two decades and the promise of an exciting future.

Thank you for being such a vital part of our ever-unfolding story!

Support a Vision of America that is Welcoming, Polycultural, and Connected.
