You Are Cordially Invited

Join us next month for a staged reading of Lyra Nalan's Road Less Traveled!

Framed by Robert Frost's beloved poem "The Road Not Taken," Road Less Traveled intertwines the lives of Frost and Chinese American trailblazer, Tye Leung Schulze. Set in the early twentieth century, these two iconoclastic figures appear in distinct yet parallel worlds as they wrestle with choices, consequences, and meanings.

When: Saturday, November 22, 2025, at 2:00 PM

📍 Where: 150 North Michigan Ave, 3rd Floor, Randolph Room,
Chicago, IL 60601

 Tickets are free, but advanced registration is required

This staged reading is being supported by the Paul M. Angell Family Foundation and the National Endowment for the Arts.

The Journey Continues

Jamil's continues his PhD studies at the European Graduate School

This October, Jamil spent three weeks in the historic city of Valletta, Malta, continuing his doctoral coursework at the European Graduate School (EGS).

This immersive experience provided a rare opportunity to study alongside world-renowned scholars, philosophers, and artists. The intensive seminars at EGS are designed to challenge conventions and foster deep, critical thinking—a process that is fundamental to the work we do at Silk Road Cultural Center. Engaging with these brilliant minds on a global stage ignites the intellectual and creative curiosity that fuels our mission.
